

Luis M. Ramos is the supervisor of the Santa Clara County District Attorney's Sexual Assault Team.

Mr. Ramos graduated with a BA in History from UCLA in 1990, and a JD from Boston University School of Law in 1994.

From 1995 until 1999, he worked as a Deputy District Attorney in Santa Cruz County. Since 1999, he has been a prosecutor in Santa Clara County, working as a trial attorney on the following teams: Narcotics; Real Estate Fraud; Domestic Violence; Sunnyvale Vertical Prosecution; and Sexual Assault. Mr. Ramos supervised the Central Felonies Team from 2013 until 2015.

District Attorney Jeff Rosen recognized Mr. Ramos with the 2012 Napoleon J. Menard Award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy – the Office's most prestigious award.